

Hi Buffer!

Thank you for building such an outstanding service.

You have made social media sharing infinitely more enjoyable and created an incredibly fun user experience.

I became an instant fan once I saw how simple it was to add to my buffer, and when I saw your analytics I knew I had stumbled onto something awesome.

Since early 2013, I have used Buffer to share all the articles, podcasts, TED Talks, photos, and more that I've come across. I'm addicted!

The adventure continues: when I saw your position for Community Champion I could hardly contain my excitement. The more I researched the company, your core values, and the type of work I would be doing, the more I knew I had found my dream job!

I'd be thrilled and deeply humbled if you considered me. You can find out more at tim-tan.com/buffer

Thanks!
